Madras, dated the 20th August 1941.

Sir,

Courts - Civil - Part II Schemes for 1942-43 Sub Court - Bellary for six months - recommended -

In the circumstances stated in the enclosed copy of his letter No.3697 dated 2-8-1941 and its enclosures from the District Judge of Bellary, the Hon'ble the Judges are of opinion that budget provision should be made for a temporary Subordinate Judge's Court at Bellary for a period of six months during next financial year, the date on which the appointment of the Subordinate Judge is to commence being decided later. Their Lordships therefore recommend the establishment of a temporary Subordinate Judge's Court at Bellary with the --

4 Clerks each onRs. 30- 55 per mensem

Copy of letter No.3697 dated 2nd August 1941 from the District Judge Bellary to the Registrar, High Court, Madras.

Ref:- Courts - Civil - Additional Courts - requirements for 1942-
High Court's R.O.C.No.2231/41-D-2 dated 14th July 1941.

1. I have the honour to state that the heavy arrears in all branches of civil work leave me no option but to apply for a Subordinat Judge's Court for a period of about six months in 1942-43. My predece sor Mr.Barter applied for a Subordinate Judge's Court last year but the High Court was pleased to negative his request in their R.O.C.No.2869/ D-2 dated 29-8-1940. There has been a substantial increase in arrears since then and in a review of the Civil statements for the first perio of this year the High Court in their R.O.P.No.6 of 1941-C-2 dated 13-6-1941 observed that the arrears of all suits and appeals on the fi of the District Judge were getting serious and that if the District Judge was unable to keep the arrears down he should make proposals for relief when submitting budget estimates.

2. The arrears on the Original Petitions and Interlocutory Applications' side cause me as much, if not more concern, than suits and appeals as they are clogging the file. There are on 1-8-1941 over 50 over one year old I.As. pending on the insolvency side alone under Sections 53 and 54 or under sections 4 and 5 of the Provincial Insolvency Act. There are 86 suits pending of which 48 are over one year old and 236 appeals of which 117 are over one year old and 176 more than six months old.

3. In addition to the statements required by the High Court giving statistics for the past three years I enclose copies of my two ready cause lists (original and appellate) which will show at a glance the nature of the arrears and what I have been able to dispose of since I took over after the recess. I am very reluctant to ask for assistance so soon after taking charge and shall do my best to reduce the arrears. I would prefer to have a Subordinate Judge for 3 or 4 months during the working half of the present year from September or October to December as these arrears do not appear to me to be quite fair on the District. I think this should be sufficient to bring the file fairly up to date by the end of the year. There were 30 Sessions cases for disposal from 23-6-1941 and stand posted practically continuously up to the middle of October. Many of the cases are simple, and I have been able to dispose of a little civil work during July without however making much headway with these arrears. I am applying therefore in any event for a Subordinate Judge for six months in 1942-43 after the re-opening of the Court if the Hon'ble Judges consider that a case cannot be made out for one before then.

Sub: Courts - Civil - Bellary Dt. - creation of a temp. sub judge's court at Bellary - Part II scheme for 1942-43.

A.S.

In connexion with the Part II Schemes for 1942-43, the Hon'ble the Judges recommend the establishment of a temporary Subordinate Judge's court at Bellary for a period of six months in 1942-43, the date on which the appointment of the sub. judge is to commence being decided later. The following establishment has been recommended :- (Ff 1 cf. Ff 2 cf. — that temporary provision may be made for)

(1) One Head clerk on Rs. 70-100 P.M.

(2) Four Clerks on Rs. 30-55 pm each

(3) Four peons on Rs. 12-17 pm. each

The reasons for which the temporary sub court is required have been explained in the letter of the Dt. Judge, Bellary on Ff 3-4 cf. The request has (Ff 3-4 cf.)

been made mainly to clear the arrears.

2. On previous occasions, the Govt. had sanctioned the creation of a temporary Sub court at Bellary as and when necessity arose. In Nov. 1928, a temporary Sub court was sanctioned to give judicial training to Mr. Mack. I.C.S. In March 1932, a temp. Sub. court was sanctioned ~~at Bellary~~ for the judicial training of Mr. D. Rajagopalan I.C.S. Similarly a temp. Sub. court was sanctioned ~~in 1938~~ from 1.11.38 to 3.7.39 (the date on which Mr. W.W. Accergeon I.C.S. completed his judicial training).

The following statement shows the pendency in the Sb. court, Bellary under O.S. and Appeals in 1928 & 1932, in Aug. 1938 on the basis of which a temp. court was sanctioned for 8 months and on 1.8.41 :—

year	O.S.		Appeals
	Total	Old	Total	Old
1928	36	-	120	-
1929	33	-	71	-
1938	8	-	52	-
1931	71	-	100	-
1932	21	-	86	-
Aug 1938	86	53 (over one year old)	137	96 (over 6 months old)
1 Aug 1941	86	48 (—do—)	236	117 (over one year old)

The pendency on the civil side (both under O.S and Appeals) is that higher in 1941 than ever before.

3. The statement at p 4 of (P) shows the institutions, disposals and pendency in the O.C. Court since 1927. It will be seen from the statement that the pendency on the civil side, both under O.S and Appeals has increased considerably since 1936 The pendency on 1.8.41 was 86 O.S. (48 old) and 236 civil appeals (117 old). Judging from the figures for the first 7 months in 1941 the institutions under O.S. maintain the level of 1940 while the institutions under appeals are likely to be much higher than in any of the recent years. The disposals under O.S are likely to be less than those in 1938 and 1939 but decidedly more than in 1940 while the disposals under appeals ~~have been~~ are expected to be of about the same number as in 1939+1940 ~~steady since 1938~~. The pendency on 1.8.41 of 48 old O.S. and 117 old appeals alone, represents work for more than one year for the district judge on the basis of the standards outturn. Besides the D.J. also points out that the arrears on the Original Petitions and Interlocutory Applications side are clogging the file.

4. For orders whether, in view of the heavy pendency in the Sb. Court, the recommendation of the Hon'ble the Judges will be accepted and necessary provision made in the budget for a temp. Sub. Court at Bellary with staff for a period of six months during 1942-43. Finance may see for remarks.

NOTE BY THE ADMINISTRATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The Hon'ble the Judges recommend that budget provision may be made for the opening of a temporary Subordinate Judge's Court at Bellary with the usual staff of—

(1) one head clerk on Rs. 70—100,

(2) four clerks on Rs. 30—55 each, and

(3) four peons on Rs. 12—17 each for a period of six months in 1942-43, the date on which the appointment of the subordinate judge is to commence being decided later.

2. The Government have in the past sanctioned the creation of a temporary Sub-Court at Bellary as and when necessity arose. The following statement shows the pendency in the District Court, Bellary—

(i) under original suits and civil appeals between 1928 and 1932,

(ii) in August 1938, when the pendency led to the sanctioning of a temporary sub-court for 8 months; and

(iii) on 1st August 1941 :—

Pendency.

Year.	Original suits.		Appeals.
	Total.	Old.	Total.	Old.
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(5)
(i) 1928	36	..	120	..
1929	33	..	71	..
1930	8	..	52	..
1931	71	..	100	..
1932	21	..	86	..
(ii) August 1938	86	53 (over one year old).	137	96 (over 6 months old).
(iii) 1st August 1941 ..	86	48 (over one year old).	236	117 (over one year old).

The total pendency on the civil side (both under original suits and appeals) is higher in 1941 than ever before. The District Judge says that the arrears under original petitions and interlocutory applications are clogging the file. On the basis of the old standard outturn of 29 original suits and 106 appeals, the pendency in the District Court on 1st August 1941, viz., 48 old original suits and 117 old appeals, alone represents work for more than one year for the District Judge. In the circumstances, it is necessary to afford relief to the District Judge and it is therefore proposed to accept the recommendation of the High Court.

3. The financial effect of the proposal is a non-recurring expenditure of Rs. 4,100 as shown in the summary at the beginning of this note.

4. This department recommends the inclusion of the necessary provision in the budget for 1942-43.

A. R. MacEwen—6-10-41.
